REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

Read the following paper:—

No. 385. Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 14th August 1877.

Read the following letter from W. McQUHAE, Collector of Madura, to the Hon. D. ARBUTHNOTT, Inam Commissioner, dated Feroke, 13th June 1877, No. 1,922.

I HAVE the honor to state that 4·35 acres of land in the Eluvancotta village, of the Shivagungah Estate, paying a poruppu of Rupees 3-15-6 to the Zemindar, have been granted for the support of a village temple at Eluvancotta. This Inam has been settled by the Inam Department and Title-deed, No. 1,425, issued in the name of the trustee.

2. It was brought to the notice that the land in question had been alienated by mortgage, and that the temple itself was out of repair. The trustee was, therefore, directed by two notices from this office to keep the temple in repair and to render the service properly. He admits that the greater portion of the Inam was mortgaged by his father, and that the small extent in his possession has not yielded anything for the last two years, and that he is unable to repair the temple which is in bad repair; and further states that the pujah he performs every Saturday is carried on from the amount he gets by begging.

3. The late Zemindarni of Shivagungah complained of this state of things, and requested that the Inam may be attached. I therefore request your instructions in the matter. It is clear that the Inam is not appropriated for the purpose for which it was granted. The Inam, I think, may be attached, and the produce allowed to accumulate for the repair of the building.

No. 181.

TRANSFERRED to the Board of Revenue for disposal.

2. The best course appears to be to fully assess the Inam and assign the revenue to the Devastanum Committee of the district as suggested in paragraph 5 of the Board's Proceedings, dated 5th March 1877, No. 1,038.

MADRAS,
24th July 1877.

(Signed) D. ARBUTHNOTT,
Inam Commissioner.

SUBMITTED for the orders of Government.

2. The Board concur in the recommendation of the Inam Commissioner.
