FROM The Director of Rev: Settlt

TO The Secretary to the Board of Revn

SIR,

As I am anxious to close the accounts of the Salem District settled in 1873, I have urged the collection of outstanding balances against ryots for demarcation marks erected.

2. The accounts have been cleared up in the Talugs of Attur, Attaneery, Kaiyuragery & Erepattoor & the small outstanding balances in Trichinopoly & Salem will probably be collected immediately. In Daramporie & Coimbatore however the outstanding balances amounting to Rs 755-8-10 cannot be collected this year at all events & for some years to come the ryots will be too impoverished to pay. Many of those who incurred the obligation are no doubt dead & as it seems impracticable to close the accounts even at a trifling loss I request permission to write off the sum of Rs 755-8-10 as irrecoverable.
