Referring to Proceedings of Government as per margin calling on Heads of Departments to report by the 15th January 1877 whether all employees in their respective Departments have provided themselves with service books required by the Civil Pension Code, I have the honour to state that service books have been provided to all officers in the Revenue Survey Department except Measurers. These servants are only enlisted or retained as they happen to be wanted and consequently their stay in the Department is uncertain.

2. A Register has been opened in every District Survey Party shewing the Service of Measurers. A service book can be compiled from this record in case any Measurer remains more than 5 years in the service and becomes entitled to compensation or

Sir,

With reference to G. O. No 1122 dated 9 October last, I have the honor to state that almost all the employes of superior service in this Department have provided themselves with the service books required by the Pension Code. Some of these books are incomplete in some respects. Strict orders have been issued for their speedy completion and those who have not hitherto provided themselves with books have been ordered to do so.

ABSTRACT.—Requesting Board to submit report called for in Mis. G.O's., dated 11th and 30th October 1876, No. 2,360 and 2,492.

From the replies received to the first of these references it appears that in Godavery, Nellore, Bellary, Madras, North Arcot, Tanjore, Tinnevelly, Salem, Madura, and the Nilgiris, and in the Collector of Sea Customs Office, service registers are already kept in English. In the Vizagapatam District it is possible that there may be some difficulty as regards the Jeypore country, and in South Canara it is stated that there may possibly be some difficulty in the case of Salt and Sea Customs Superintendents. Replies have not been received from the Cuddapah and Kurnool Districts, or from the Superintendent of Stamps. Other Collectors report that there will be no difficulty. The Board are of opinion that there could be no objection to making the rule universal, except in the Jeypore country.

2. With regard to the second reference it appears that all the employés under the Collectors of Vizagapatam, Godavery, Kistna, Madras, Chingleput, North Arcot, Tanjore, Trichinopoly, Madura, Tinnevelly, the Nilgiris, Salem, South Canara, Malabar, Sea Customs, and the Superintendents of Stamps and Government Farms, have already supplied themselves with service books; and that in all other cases measures are being taken to see that they do so. The employés of the Board's Office have supplied themselves with service books.

To

H. E. Stokes Esquire,
Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue,
Madras.

Sir,

With reference to Board's Miscellaneous No. 9903 of the 15th Ultimo, I have the honor to state that there will be no difficulty in keeping in English the Service Books prescribed in Section 69 of the Civil Pension Code, and that for the most part they are already kept in English. The Talug Gumastahs and peons have their books generally in Tamil, but there will be no difficulty in translating them into English, if Government wish it.

2. I have submitted a similar report to Government on receipt of G. O. Financial Department dated 29th September last No. 1753.

Sir,

With reference to G. O. dated 29th September 1876 No. 1733, communicated with Board's Endorsement dated 15th November 1876 Miscellaneous No. 9903, I have the honor to state that in this District the service books prescribed in section 29 of the Civil Pension Code are kept in English only at the Hazur Offices. In the Taluk offices where English is generally unknown they are for the most part kept in the Vernacular (Canarese). The system of keeping these books in English may however be introduced in the Tahsildars' and Deputy Tahsildars' Katcherries as most of these officers themselves know English and have each one or two clerks competent for the work. With regard to the rest of the Taluk servants such as Salt and Sea Custom Superintendents and their subordinates the books cannot be kept in English as almost all of them and their clerks are ignorant of English. If it is however resolved that these books should invariably be kept in English, these servants may be required to prepare their Registers first in the Vernacular and then to have them translated into English but they cannot be held responsible for inaccuracies in these translations. I am therefore of opinion that for the present the arrangement in question cannot be immediately brought into force in this District without causing some difficulty and inconvenience.

Sir,

With reference to Board's Proceedings Mis: No 10,003 dated 18th November 1876 I have the honor to report that strict orders have been issued enjoining all the Revenue Subordinates in the District to keep Service Registers. Reports have not yet been received from the Division Officers as to whether the orders have been fully complied with but I have no doubt that many have by this time provided themselves with Service Books, as many applications for Printed Service Books have been received in this office and complied with.

with.

2. I here beg to submit that the time of all the Officials in the District having for the last 4 months been chiefly occupied with famine matters, very little time could have been left them to attend to the filling up of their Service Registers: Some consideration has therefore to be shown to persons who by reason of pressure of more important famine work, have not been able to obey the orders of Government at once. Every endeavour however has been and will be made to carry out the orders of Government in this matter.

To
A. E. Stokes Esqre
Secretary to the Board of Revenue Madras

Sir,

I have the honor, with reference to the Proceedings of the Board dated 18 November last No. 10,003, to report that in the Principal Division of this District, and in the Divisions of the Sub Collector and of the Deputy Collector on General Duties, all Public Servants in the Revenue and Magisterial Departments have provided themselves with Service Register Books. No Report has yet been received from the the Ag. Head Assistant Collector to whom several Reminders have been sent. As soon as that officer's Report is received, I shall address the Board again on the subject.

2 The delay that has occurred in sending in this Report was caused by my waiting for the Return from the Head Assistant Collector.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,

Boards Proceedings dated 18th and 15th November 1876 Mis Nos 10003 and 9903.

With reference to the Boards Proceedings as per margin I have the honor to state that all the employés in the several Departments under me have provided themselves with the service books required by the Civil Pension Code with the exception of a few of the inferior servants. Steps have been taken to provide them with the books as soon as possible.

2. I have also to report that the service books are generally kept in English and I do not see any difficulty in keeping them all in that language.

I have issued instructions that in any case in which the book has been kept in the Vernacular a fresh one should be prepared in English -
