No. 2909

Proceedings of the Madras Government, 1877.

Read the following paper:—

I from the Military Secretary to His Grace the Governor to the Secretary to Government, Military Department, dated Friday
Park, 2nd May 1877.

I have the honor to order of His Grace the Governor to acquaint you that His Grace visited the Relief Camp in charge of Lieutenant W. H. Jackson, R. A., at the Cortislar series in the morning of the 19th instant.

Very much damage had been done the previous day by the storm;

a

a large number of the huts were completely wrecked, and all those still standing were more or less shaken.

As the camp was full of Natives in the greatest distress & wretchedness and as it was desirable to provide shelter with as little loss of time as possible, for building which Lieutenant Le Myer had no competent assistance, the telegram as per attached copy was, under His Grace's instructions, despatched by the telegraph Officer in attendance from the spot.

I am directed to request that you will be so good as to report the circumstances for the information of His Excellency the Commander in Chief, and solicit the favour of His Excellency's concurrence.
