GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

25th September 1877, No. 2,923.

Famine Relief.

Read the following paper:—

No. 646. Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 14th September 1877.

Read the following letter from W. H. GLENNY, Esq., Sub-Collector of Bellary, to J. H. MASTER, Esq., Collector of Bellary, dated Ghooty, 6th September 1877, No. 337.

On the night of the 4th instant, a very violent hurricane and thunderstorm accompanied by heavy rain raged at Wajrakaroor from 8 P. M. till 1 A. M.

2. At midnight, three of the sheds forming the temporary famine hospital were unroofed and partly blown down.

3. Five children and six old people were killed.

4. Lieutenant Wilson marched the Sappers to the place, and, enabled by the lightning to see the work, had the debris and the corpses cleared away, and the living removed to certain temples and unoccupied houses.

5. Last night I heard from Dr. Wilson that all had been made safe against a recurrence of the storm.

6. The nullahs between Karoor and Goondacul were yesterday in flood, so as to cut off supplies by carts. There was sufficient food for the hospital in store, and Mr. Wilson was making exertions to get grain carts dragged over the breaks in the road.

7. The new roadway in one place, for 150 yards, had suffered by the floods.

8. Mr. Wilson evidently acted with great promptitude and energy, and he says the Sappers worked splendidly.

9. No blame for the disaster attaches to any one, in my opinion. The hospital had been inspected and highly approved by Dr. Cornish, the Range Officer and myself. Mr. Wilson says that not even in the Himalayas has he ever witnessed such a hurricane. It seems to have been altogether local.

Forwarded to the Board of Revenue for information.

(Signed) J. H. MASTER,
Collector.

Bellary,
8th September 1877.

Submitted for the information of Government.

2. The Board much regret the loss of life reported; Lieutenant Wilson's promptitude is deserving of commendation.

No. 647. ORDER THEREON, 25th September 1877, No. 2,923.

Miscellaneous.

THE loss of life caused by the storm is to be regretted.

2. The energy and promptitude displayed by Lieutenant Wilson and the Sappers under his orders is just what might have been expected of them.
