GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

25th September 1877, No. 2,938.

Famine Relief.

Read the following paper:—

No. 675. Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 17th September 1877,
No. 4,356.

Read the following letter from R. W. BARLOW, Esq., Collector of the Chingleput District, to A. H. JONES, Esq., Deputy Collector, in charge of the Saidapett Taluq, dated Saidapett, 10th September 1877, No. C:—

In reply to your letter, No. 296, of the 5th instant, I have the honor to inform you that I have just carefully inspected the inmates of the Guindy Camp, and see no necessity for your re-entertaining any special establishment on their account.*

* For relegation.

2. I could scarcely see an able bodied male, and, if there are any such, they may very fairly be turned out, as there is plenty of work near, or, if they belong to another district, be sent away with the necessary batta by the Superintendent himself. The same remark applies to women if in good health, and not incapacitated by age from working.

3. Children are our most difficult problem. Many came to us skeletons, but are now comparatively robust; to turn them out, unless they have parents or relatives to look after them, would be to undo all that has been already done by the State, and I propose to retain them, except when we are satisfied that, if turned out, they will be provided for a way.

SUBMITTED to the Board of Revenue for information.

(Signed) R. W. BARLOW, Collector.

THE Collector's instructions do not appear to be in accordance with G.O., dated 25th August 1877, No. 2,573-B, directing that the Guindy Camp be maintained as a small closed camp kept strictly for the relief of those needing medical attendance from the neighbouring village of Saidapett. He appears to contemplate the reception of all comers not able to work.
