GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

26th September 1877, No. 2,966.

Famine Relief.

Read the following paper :—

No. 731. From Surgeon-General G. SMITH, M.D., Indian Medical Department, Fort St. George, to J. H. GARSTIN, Esq., Additional Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, dated Fort St. George, 15th September 1877, No. 588.

I HAVE the honor to forward, for the information of Government, the accompanying copy of a letter addressed by Bengal Assistant Surgeon Promotho Nath Mookerjee to the Medical Officer at Gooty, in which he writes as follows :—"Owing to a sudden attack of diarrhoea, I am entirely unable to start for Kurnool, and am afraid to stop any more in this country in a friendless state. This circumstance obliged me to search after a shelter, which I hope to find at a friend's of mine in Bombay;" and accordingly the Assistant Surgeon has proceeded to Bombay instead of going to Kurnool, to which district he was relegated for famine duty. Under these circumstances, I would recommend that the Government of India be requested to recall the Assistant Surgeon, as he is not likely to prove useful for the special work for which he has been detailed.

ENCLOSURE No. 1.

From PROMOTHO NATH MOOKERJEE, Third Grade Assistant Surgeon, to Assistant Apothecary S. E. CARRAPIETT, in Medical charge Civil Dispensary, dated Gooty, 8th September 1877.

I WENT to the Tahsildar, as you know, this morning personally and saw him in his bungalow. He received me very kindly, and was kinder enough to order a peon of his to procure a cart for me. This man tried his best to procure a good one, but to my greatest misfortune none was obtained. Yet I was ready to start in the early morning to-morrow. But owing to a sudden attack of diarrhoea, I am entirely unable to start for Kurnool, and am afraid to stop any more in this country in a friendless state. This circumstance obliged me to search after a shelter, which I hope to find at a friend's of mine in Bombay. Thither I am going now, and there I shall stop until I get myself restored to health. Kindly report this illness of mine to the Surgeon-General of Madras.

No. 732. ORDER THEREON, 26th September 1877, No. 2,966.

Miscellaneous.

THE Surgeon-General's letter and its enclosure will be communicated to the Government of India.

2. Assistant Surgeon Promotho Nath Mookerjee's services are hereby replaced at the disposal of that Government.

Sir

I went to the Cashildas as you know this morning personally & saw him in his Bungalows. He received me kindly and was kinder enough to order a person of his to procure a cart for me. This man tried his best to procure a good one, but to my greatest misfortune none was obtained. Yet I was ready to start in the early morning to-morrow. But owing to a sudden attack of Diarrhoea I am entirely unable to start for Hurnool and am afraid to stop any more in this country in a friendless state. This circumstance obliged me to search after a shelter, which I hope to find at a friend's of mine in Bombay. Thither I am going now, and there I shall stop until I get myself restored to health.
