From the list printed in the G.O. no 1.323 of 18.4.77, it appears there is an Overser J.
Jackson employed on the Public Railway on a Salary of Rs 100.
But the man wanted is a Sub-Engineer & not an Overser.

We recd. this morning a letter from the D. K. R. stating that Subdy. J. Jackson had not joined the District up to the 10th May.

Who the A Jackson is, whose name appears in the Salary list of the Kurnool Division, I know not, nor do I know what authority Mr. Forster has for saying that we have passed on are passing any pay to them - either stat^o would be

J. Jackson - But a stranger to us, one A:

appears this month in the

Probably this is your

My dear Garrison

Here is a note from Mr. Leam^o: Somewhere the missing Jackson is - and it is A Jackson and not a J. Jackson

My dear Garrison.

Please see to accompanying telegram - from Davidson. Jackson (either A or J) does not appear to be in the road though the train is passing his pay as if he was - or else Davidson is making a change mistake - yours
