27th September 1877, No. 2,986.

Famine Relief.

Read the following paper:—

No. 769. Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 20th September 1877.
Read the following letter from W. P. AUSTIN, Esq., Acting Sub-Collector of North Arcot, to W. S. WHITESIDE, Esq., Collector of North Arcot, dated Kuppam, 29th August 1877, No. 699.

I HAVE the honor to request you will sanction with retrospective effect from the 1st of this month horse allowance of Rs. 10 per mensem to the Head Maistry, Narayanaswamy Moodelly, in charge of the relief-works on the Kuppam to Kangundi and Kuppam to Venkataghericotta roads. The Kangundi road has now progressed so far (about 5 miles) that it is impossible for the Maistry to inspect the works on both roads properly unless he has a pony to ride about on. I beg to point out that although this individual is only called a Maistry he is practically an Overseer, as he is in entire charge of the work, with no professional man over him. His work on the Kuppam road is highly satisfactory, and I do not wish to alter present arrangement, but only to enable him to go from road to road expeditiously, and for this purpose horse allowance is absolutely necessary. It would be impossible for him to keep a pony on his present pay of Rs. 20.
