No. 800. From R. W. BARLOW, Esq., Collector of the Chingleput District, to all Divisional Officers, Chingleput District, dated Madrantakam, 12th September 1877, No. 3,119.

ADVERTING to the recent Gazette of India Extraordinary containing the Viceroy's Minute, &c., on famine affairs, I have the honor to request that, pending the further orders of Government, you will take in hand by the Revenue Department as few works as possible, not yet commenced even though sanctioned. Works commenced should be pushed on to completion, and it is preferable to crowd coolies on them rather than commence fresh ones, which should only be done when it is absolutely necessary to find further employment at once.
