GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

29th September 1877, No. 3,035.

Famine Relief.

Read the following paper:—

No. 866. Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 1st September 1877, No. 4,057.

Read G.Os., dated 7th and 11th August 1877, Nos. 4,411 and 4,494.

THE Board presume that no general change in the mode in which relief-works are to be supervised is contemplated, for although paragraph 2 of the first of the foregoing orders conveys the impression that supervision by the Public Works Department is to be the rule, and execution by Revenue Officers the exception, no definite instructions to this end have been passed as far as the Board are aware, except as regards the Salem District, and it is believed that the strength of the professional staff in most of the distressed districts is not such as to admit of transfer to any considerable extent.

G.O., dated 29th June 1877, No. 125-I.

2. With reference to the second order, some instructions seem required as to the works, under the Public Works Department which are to be considered relief-works in order that the procedure laid down in G.O., dated 18th January 1877, No. 156, may be observed in respect of them, and the inclusion of the laborers employed thereon in the Collector's weekly returns may be secured. All works not included in the budget which may be taken up will be regarded, it is presumed, as relief-works, but as regards budgeted works, excess outlay to be debited to the famine will occur; the adjustment of the charge is provided for in paragraph 3, but whether such works are now, or when the budget allotments have been expended, to be treated as relief-works does not appear; and the Board think that, with a view to secure uniformity, definite instructionr should be issued as regards the inclusion or exclusion of the laborers in the preparation of the weekly returns of coolies on the works.
