J. H. Parthen Esquire
Secretary to Government Madras.

Sir,

I beg most earnestly that you will be so good as to save me from the ruin which the order con-

No. 517 of the 27th instant, from the actuary Head Assistant Collector, entails on me.

2. I do not know the reason why my services have been dispensed with, except it be that I have been laid up for some days with a bad foot, occasioned by the bite of a poisonous insect on the instep of my right foot, while unoccupied on duty under a tree on the side of the Relief Road 2½ miles from Codoor, without any shelter whatever except the shade of the tree itself. During my 2½ years of fruitless service as Sub. Eng. in the B. & N. S.
I have never been subjected to any thing like the exposure I have experienced here, as a Posonous Relief Officer.

I have the honor to be
