Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 23rd January 1877.

Read the following papers :—

No. 636. Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 6th January 1877, No. 46.

Read again Board's Proceedings, dated 29th August 1876, No. 2,219.

Read also the following letter from J. H. MASTER, Esq., Collector of Bellary, to H. E. STOKES, Esq., Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Hospett, 20th September 1876, No. 352.

With reference to the Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, No. 2,219, dated 29th ultimo, I have the honor to state that as the Yeomiah had been enjoyed for more than a century by the family of the deceased, and as the allowance was entered in the annual lists of Yeomiahs and in that sent by the Board in 1860 as hereditary, it was entered as such in my statement submitted to the Board on the 24th July last.

SUBMITTED for the orders of Government.

2. This is one of the personal grants for subsistence and for offering up prayers for the State, regarding which doubts were formerly entertained as to whether they were hereditary or not. It has recently been decided that they are not hereditary—G.O., 5th July 1876, No. 903.

3. The amount of the grant is so small (Rupees 14-8-0 a-year) that it can be of little help to the large family left by the deceased which, it is observed, has other means of support, and includes several men of mature age who should be able to earn a livelihood for themselves and for those dependent on them. In these circumstances the Board see no reason to recommend the continuance of the grant.

Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 24th August 1876, No. 2,219.
Read the following paper from J. H. MASTER, Esq., Collector of Bellary, to C. A. GALTON, Esq., Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated 24th July 1876.

Statement of Inam and Yeomiah Allowances intended to be continued to the Heirs of deceased Incumbents.

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Taluk and village, extent and value of the entire Inam.	Whom and by whom granted, name of the original grantee, Sanads or other documents in support of the grant.	Nature of the grant, charity or service; if service, nature of the duty prescribed by the grant.	Name of the last holder, date of his decease, and the relationship in which he stood to the grantee.	Share enjoyed by the deceased and that held by the other members.	Family left by the Deceased.	Recommendation and Grounds thereof.
Subsistence Yeomiah of Rs. 14-8-0 per annum at Rupees 1-3-4 per man. Some drawn from the Treasury at Adoni.	By Thahwar Jang in Hijri 1168, corresponding with A.D. 1753. Name of the original grantee, Bheemachari. No Sanad is forthcoming now. The date of last G.O. confirming the Yeomiah, 2nd October 1821 and 13th January 1846.	For subsistence, hereditary.	Goody Bheemachari died on the 17th of April 1876. He is the grandson of the original grantee.	The deceased enjoyed the whole amount.	1. Hanumuntha Charry, the eldest son of the deceased, age 50. 2. Bheemakke, wife of No. 1, age 45. 3. Bheemachari, eldest son of (1), age 30. 4. Madrachari, 2nd son of (1), age 28. 5. Venkobachari, 3rd son of (1), age 15. 6. Goundamma, wife of (4), age 20. 7. Kristachari, second son of the deceased, age 45. 8. Kaveramma, wife of (7), age 25. 9. Venkobachari, third son of the deceased, age 40. 10. Raghunna, wife of (9), age 30. 11. Raghavendrachari, fourth son of the deceased, age 35. 12. Venkumamah, widowed daughter of the deceased. Besides this Yeomiah the family possesses Inam lands of the value of Rupees 40 per annum and a money allowance of Rupees 13-2-0 for the performance of religious service in a temple.	This family has held the Yeomiah for more than a century, and it is hereditary. The family possesses other means of livelihood only in a very small amount. I beg therefore to recommend that the grant be continued to the eldest son of the deceased; the other members have agreed to this arrangement.

The Board presume that Bheemachari, whose death is now reported, is the person to whom one-fourth share of an allowance of Rupees 58-1-0 a-year was continued in succession to his father Hanumuntha Charry by G.O., dated 2nd October 1821, No. 736.

In the tabular report above reported, it is stated that the grant is hereditary, but from list Z submitted with Mr. Chaplin's letter, dated 20th September 1814, and from the statement submitted with the Collector's letter, dated 29th August 1821, it appears that the entire allowance was a personal grant for subsistence and for offering up prayers for the State such as those referred to in G.O., dated 5th July 1876, No. 903, and which it has been decided are not hereditary. In neither of the orders referred to in column 2 is the hereditary character of the grant recognised, but on the G.O., dated 13th January 1846, No. 193, contrary paragraph 3 of the second* order directing that certain grants of the same nature should lapse on the demise of the incumbents implies that such grants are not hereditary. The Collector is, therefore, requested to quote the authority in support of the assertion that the grant is hereditary.
