To

The Adjutant General
of the Madras Army.

Sir,

In reply to your letter
N^o 148 dated 19th May 1777 I am directed to state for the information of His Excellency the Commandr.
- in - Chief, that Major Alexander's services were re-
- placed at His Excellency's disposal because he was found not well fitted for the peculiar work on which he was employed and had moreover evinced a dislike to it.

Dated May 25th 1877.

FOR ORDERS.

H. I. the Com. in Chief wants to know why Major Alexander's services are placed at his disposal.

Mr. Rice's D.O., which is herewith put up, shows the grounds on which that officer recommended his removal.

Submit that H. I. might be informed that Major A. was ^{appointed} ~~relegated~~ to mil. duty because he ^{was} ~~was~~ ^{deemed} ~~was~~ ^{to be} ~~was~~ ^{of great importance} ~~was~~ ^{for the civil employment} ~~was~~ ^{to which he was engaged.}

Re: Mr. Rice's letter of the 21st inst. to the Com. in Chief of the Army, dated May 18th, 1877.
The Com. in Chief's disposal of the case is correct.
Because he has found it to be for the service to keep him employed in the military service and not to let him go.*

I would say because he was found to be fitted for the service and in which he was employed in the military service.

My Dear Garrison.

If you can write let me hear of Major Alexander for me may be, I am very much disappointed with him. He undoubtedly drinks far more than is good for him and appears to me and others to be in a constant state of "boozing". He has been very dilatory and has told me that he does not like his duty and does not want to remain at it

He further told Jellison that he hoped that I would report that he is useless and get him turned out. I observed when he was summing that my orders were to put him upon his present duty and that I was under the impression that he must have volunteered. He replied that he had been back afterwards with Dr. Aaron. He does not look after his clothes with any care and if you cannot strip him out of the district and he continues to be business in the way in which he does I must report him officially and then as I shall have to substantiate my allegations

Here will be a case. ~~277~~ Surge is a good man and can be trusted.
I think - If Major A was out of the way I would put him in charge of the Band and Depot where an European Officer is required. He can do all that I want.
