MY LORD,—A letter has been received from the Secretary of the Public Works Department of your Government, dated the 7th January 1877, No. 23, Extract from Minutes of Consultation, requesting the recovery of a sum of Rupees 58-1-0 from Mr. C. Innes, late Executive Engineer, "Ganges Navigation Works Division."

2. It is stated that this sum "represents officiating allowance for twenty-eight days, which was by an oversight paid a second time to Mr. Innes," but the date of that overpayment is not given.

3. In paragraph 7 of my Financial Department No. 450, I requested that "on all occasions who have come to this country are transmitted full particulars of the claims," but that represent instance, and, under the circumstances, the recovery of the retrenchment from Mr. Innes.

4. I request that, in future, claims forwarded in a Secretary's letter, but only from Governments of Madras or Bombay.

5. You will make the necessary arrangements in relation to those Governments accordingly.
