Read the following paper:—

No. 285. From Lieutenant-Colonel W. S. DREVER, Commissioner of Police, to the Officiating Chief Secretary to Government, dated Madras, 16th May 1877, No. 71.

Referring to G.O. (Famine), No. 1441 of 8th May 1877, I have the honor to report that this department is doing all it can to prevent the nuisances complained of. I observe that during the last six months, of 1,927 prosecutions by the Police under Section 53 of Madras Act VIII of 1867, 1,898 persons were convicted and fined in small sums by the Magistrates.

2. We are quite powerless absolutely to change the habits of the people or compel them to resort to the latrines either individually or collectively, and, until this happy stage is reached, they will continue to frequent the open spaces near their dwellings in the early mornings when they cannot be seen by the Police on duty.
