23rd January 1877.

No. 709. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 13th January 1877:—

Read the following letter from J. H. MASTER, Esq., Collector of Bellary, to H. E. STOKES, Esq., Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated 10th January 1877, No. 18.

I HAVE the honor to remind you of my letter, No. 10, dated 6th instant, and to request you will be good enough to obtain early sanction for the grant applied for therein.

2. I annex a memorandum showing the distribution of funds up to date.

3. From the memorandum in question it will be seen that the grants, including the sum applied for in the letter above alluded to, have been exceeded by Rupees 53,463-0-7.

4. As applications are being received for further grant of funds, I request you will be good enough to obtain sanction for a grant of a still further sum of five lakhs of rupees for the payment of famine relief coolies.

5. The weekly reports will show what progress has been made in the relief works:—

that the sums in the first column are those which have been distributed, but if the outlay figures are correct, large sums are left in some taluqs, and the distribution is faulty. The Board hope that the differences are not due to incompleteness or inaccuracy in the weekly reports.

2. The requirements of the district are, however, very great, and the Board resolve to sanction a further sum of five lakhs. The Collector will support his next application with details regarding outlay, not distribution of funds; and will state what has been spent on special establishment and such like items not mentioned in his present report.

A sum of five lakhs was sanctioned in Board's Proceedings 8th January 1877. The grant to the District, including this sum is Rs 23, 16, 000 and the outlay shown in the Weekly report for the 6th Instant, 15, 93, 244.

Adding the Special payments reported in the foregoing letter (Rs 2,29,139) the total outlay comes to Rs 18,22,383. The discrepancies between the Collector's weekly report and the figures now reported are very great as shown in the margin, he will explain the cause at once. The

Board note that it is stated that the sums in the first column are those which have been distributed, but if the outlay figures are correct, large sums are left in
