Sir

With reference to your Circular Memorandum No 193 dated 23rd Instant calling for the submission of a Statement shewing what proportion of the numbers receiving Gratuitous relief have been removed and have been transferred or compelled to have recourse to the Relief houses or Camps from inability to work. I have the honor to state that no relief works have been started in the Salem District.

2. The return appears to have been called for to let what number of Coolies have
