sideration and orders of Government.
In

W 366
In G.O. 14th November 1876
At No. 166 the services of S. Subbaraja Iyer Deputy Collector on General C duties in the Sinnerully District were lent to the Ettapuram Estate in order that he might accompany the minor zamindar to Delhi, and his pay was debited to the Zamindar.
Teeraragavi the Collector's Sheristadar was appointed to act as Deputy Collector during Subbaraja Iyer's absence. The Collector now requests that this appointment may be made substantive problem retrospectively to enable Teeraragavi to draw pay as 4th class Dy Collector

3/335
in order that the other persons con-cerned in the arrangement may draw the full pay of their respective posts.
The Board see no objection to the Collector's proposal in as much as Subbarayer's pay is available and therefore recommend it for sanction.
On the receipt of the orders of Govt instructions will be issued regarding the grant of full pay to the Muzar and Sub Division Sheristadars.
