Read the following paper:—

No. 15. Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 8th October 1877, Miscellaneous No. 13,877.

Read the following letter from R RICE, Esq., Acting Special Assistant Collector of Bellary, to J. H. MASTER, Esq., Collector of Bellary, dated 20th September 1877, No. 157.

I HAVE the honor to enclose herewith an Objection Memorandum which I have received from the Accountant-General retrenching me in the sum of Rs. 114-15-6 on account of fixed tentage drawn by me when Acting Sub-Collector of Tinnevely in 1876.

2. The Accountant-General bases this retrenchment on the fact of my having certified that Mr. Glenny's (for whom I acted) tents were placed at my disposal during his absence on privilege leave.

3. Now, though it is quite true that I gave this certificate, yet in actual fact Mr. Glenny did not formally place his tents at my disposal either in writing or verbally, but while absent he wrote to me privately asking for such certificate. I never for a moment thinking that it would in any way affect my allowances, and in the belief that it was nothing more than a mere formal act which would not affect either Government or any body else signed the certificate and in reality I never used Mr. Glenny's tents but carried about and used my own while I was acting for him.

4. I merely signed the certificate in the sense that though the tents were neither formally nor actually placed at my disposal, yet I believed that Mr. Glenny would have had no objection to my using them had I required them.

5. I did not, however, require them and I did not use them, and I trust that under these circumstances the Board will be pleased to remit the retrenchment. I need scarcely remind the Board that at the time I undertook and was carrying on the duties of the Sub-Collector's office in addition to my own, viz., Head Assistant's, and I cannot but think it very hard that, under the circumstances explained, I should be subjected to deduction.

SUBMITTED, in original, to the Board of Revenue for orders.

SUBMITTED for the orders of Government.
