With reference to letter, * No. 3,976,
* Herewith returned.

Under paragraph 56 of the Civil Pension Code, late Tahsildar of Trichengode, is absolutely inefficient in the terms intimated by the Government of India.

Collector of Salem, to C. G. MASTER, Secretary to Government, dated 27th Nov.

1-31st October 1877, of the Officiating Under Secretary to the Government of India, referred to me with your order to transmit herewith a certificate of inefficiency of N. C. Streenivassa Iyengar, late Tahsildar of Trichengode, in the

CERTIFICATE.

Under paragraph 56 of the Civil Pension Code, late Tahsildar of Trichengode, is absolutely inefficient in the terms intimated by the Government of India.

SALEM,

Revenue Department

Financial Department

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt in the Revenue Department of your letter No. 2606 (Shashtilassur) dated 27th August 1877 forwarding a memorial addressed to Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India, by M.
Shrinivasrao Tyagi, late Tahsildar of Tri-chengode in the District of Salem, praying for retention in Government service for one
- His year, instead of being compelled to retire under the Superannuation Rule.

2 In reply I am directed to observe that the certificate of the Collector of Salem, viz. that the applicant is, owing to old age and being above 56 years old, unfit for further service does not sufficiently meet the requirements of Rule 3 under Section 56 of the Civil Service Code. The fact of an officers age exceeding 56 years does not of itself imply inefficiency.

3 Before forwarding the applicant's memorial to the Secretary of State for India, the Governor General in Council desires that with the permission of His Grace the Governor in Council, you will be good enough to forward a fresh certificate showing that the applicant is absolutely inefficient without reference herewith a certificate of inefficiency of T. B.

Srinivasan, late Tahsildar of Tenkengode in the terms stipulated by the Government of India.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
your most obedt servt.
