Proceedings of the Madras Government

Under date the 6th Decr 1877

I Read the following letter from the Accountant General dated 21. November 1877. N. 980, on the subject of postponement of interest due by Rameswaram Zemindars.

For this answer the question - when to postpone interest - I would simply say that we are now in the case of an estate under the Court of Wards.

The Accountant General will be informed that no orders on the subject have been obtained from the Govt of India as no coercive process could be issued in the case of an estate under the Court of Wards.

Dear Sir William

No doubt the real reason for not sending on the order to the P. of
I. was that it was forgotten.

When I asked in Council whether it was now to go
I was told to reply to the Accountant General in the

I think that perhaps will reply that the process has nothing to with it

Kindly answer
and return

Yours

My dear Master

I am not quite sure about this order
the argument.

As I understand
he cannot produce

Interest without Sander E. I. and that was not applied for as I

foster this one sight
