Sir.

In Revenue Board's Proceedings №. 795 of 22d Feb: 1877 and №. 1143 of 12th March 1877, the Collection of 100 Cubic yards of metal per mile was sanctioned for the following roads in the Oodumul-pettah Taluq, viz:—

(1) Oodumalpettah to Comaralingum 12 miles at Rs 625 ——— } Rs 7500

(2) Oodumalpettah to Periyapatty 12 miles at Rs 625 ——— } = 7,500

(3) Oodumalpettah to Kanakolum 12 miles at Rs 625 ——— } = 7,500

(4) Oodumalpettah to Madathu-Colum 11 miles at Rs 625 — } = 6,875

The District Engineer recommended

the

the Collection of 800 Cubic yards of metal and 800 Cubic yards of gravel instead of 1000 Cubic yards of metal only. Mr. Cork states that "owing to the careless "and perfunctory way in which this "important work of collecting metal was "carried on before his arrival in the Taluq" he is unable to carry out the District Engineers advice with the present sanction, and forwards a Supplemental estimate aggregating Rs. 6944 for the 4 roads mentioned - As regards the rates in the supplemental estimate, Mr Cork states that "the requisite quantity of metal & gravel is estimated at the rates of 12 and 3 annas per Cubic yard respectively, as the Coolies have to be paid full rate of wages even if they do 50 per cent task work -

The

2. The sanctioned allotments in Oddanumpettah Taluq have been nearly exhausted, and it is necessary to find employment for the Relief coolies.

3. I have the honor accordingly to submit the supplemental estimate for formal sanction at an early date.

Estimates for these works should be prepared at ordinary rates, which have hitherto been maintained on the works under Mr Cook, as the Coolies on his works have hitherto been paid on Scale I. The new order will make no difference in their wages. The ordinary rate for metal appears to be 10 as a Cubic yard & the rate for jelly will be 2½ as; & revising the estimate Estimate for the additional quantities required, the totals are for the four roads respectively Rs 8510, Rs 8320, Rs 9640 & Rs 8430. The revised estimates at these rates are sanctioned.
