GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

MILITARY DEPARTMENT.

23rd June 1877, No. 3685.

Furlough and Leave—Officers.

Read the following papers:—

No. 414. From L. C. PROBYN, Esq., Accountant-General, to Colonel J. MICHAEL, c.s.i., Secretary to Government, Military Department; dated Fort St. George, 27th April 1877, No. 118.

With reference to the grant of two years' furlough to Europe, with the necessary subsidiary leave, to Surgeon-Major R. W. Cockerill and Captain H. W. Bird, Cantonment Magistrate, Trichinopoly, notified at pages 215 and 275 of the Fort St. George Gazette, of the 27th ultimo, and 24th instant, I have the honor to point out that the grant of subsidiary leave to military officers in civil employ rests entirely with the Public Department, agreeably to the Order of Government in that Department, No. 179, dated the 22nd February 1876, and should not, therefore, have been granted in the Military Department. I request, respectfully, that all future applications for subsidiary leave from military officers in civil employment be transferred to the Public Department for disposal.

No. 2669.

No. 415.

Subsidiary leave is granted in the Military Department to military officers in civil employ under the provisions of G.O.G.G., No. 3147, republished in Madras G.O.G., No. 744, dated 24th November 1876, in accordance with instructions from the Government of India, under date the 20th idem.

(Signed) J. MICHAEL, Colonel,
Secretary to Government.

Fort St. George,
4th May 1877.

To the Accountant-General.

No. 416. From L. C. PROBYN, Esq., Accountant-General, to Colonel J. MICHAEL, c.s.i., Secretary to Government, Military Department; dated Fort St. George, 9th May 1877, No. 153.

In acknowledging the receipt of Order, No. 2669, dated May 4th, 1877, I have the honor to point out that the first portion of the instructions conveyed in G.O.G.G., No. 3147, dated November 1876, has been reproduced as Section 24 (b) 8 of the Civil Leave Code, third authorized Edition. Whilst the latter portion, although presumed still in force, is to some extent at variance with the provisions of what is now Section 2 of the same code, under which subsidiary leave of a military officer in civil employ may be granted under the Civil Leave Code, for it is obvious that if, in accordance with the former order, all applications for subsidiary leave submitted by military officers, however employed, should be submitted to the Military Department, and therefore granted under the Military Rules, the permission accorded by Section 2 of the Civil Leave Code would seem to be unnecessary.

2. As, however, the pay and allowances of all military officers in civil employ during subsidiary leave are disbursed by, and charged to, the Civil Department, it would be more convenient if, in observance of the procedure laid down in G. O., Public Department, No. 150, dated 14th February 1876, all applications for subsidiary leave preferred by military officers in civil employ were disposed of in the Public Department on the report of this office.

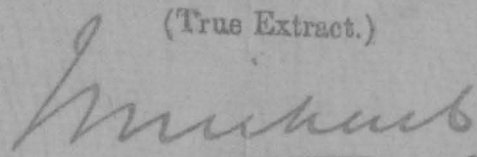

3. I would add that, as furlough must, under regulation, be granted by the Military Department, and as this office cannot possibly exercise any check over the furlough registers of military officers in civil employ, it would be advisable to order a strict observance of the plan directed in G.O.'s, Nos. 797, dated 15th February 1876, Military, and 179, dated 22nd February 1876, Public, whereby it was determined that applications for furlough should be disposed of in the Military Department on the report of the Adjutant-General, and that a separate application for subsidiary leave should be submitted through this office.

No. 417.

ORDER THEREON, 23rd June 1877, No. 3685.

His Grace the Governor in Council does not consider that any modification of orders is needed. The rule laid down in paragraph 3 of O.G., No. 150, of 14th February 1876, regarding applications of military officers in civil employ for subsidiary leave, will be maintained.
