PROCEEDINGS of the MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

Read the following letter from the Acting Collector of Nellore:-

to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated 10th January 1877, No. 138.

I have the honor to suggest that as a Telegraph Office is now open at Ongole all Emergent Communications referring to the Landing and transport of grain at Kottapattanam may be telegraphed direct to the Sub Collector to save delay, postal copies being forwarded to me for information. Though Mr. Hardison will be necessarily frequently absent from Ongole, he will make suitable arrangements for the telegrams being disposed of in his absence.
