Official Memorandum

The undersigned is directed to state in reply to Off^r Memo: from the Secy: Secretary to Govt dated 29 May N^o 197 that as Travelling allowances of Covenanted & Uncovenanted officers are drawn in accordance with fixed rules it does not appear necessary that such bills should be passed by the Board before payment; the Collector's Countersignature will suffice - The only case in which the Board desire to retain their powers of deciding regarding claims to travelling allowance is when entourage for rapid travelling is claimed by distance and on this subject they have recently addressed Govt in their Proc dated 26th April 1877. & 1st 1927.
