*Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department,
26th January 1877.*

No. 829. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 20th January 1877:—

Read the following letter from R. W. BARLOW, Esq., Collector of the Chingleput District, to H. E. STOKES, Esq., Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Sydapett, 16th January 1877, No. 36.

ADVERTING to Board's Proceedings, dated the 27th ultimo, and Government Order, No. 1,431, dated 6th October last, I have the honor to report, for information and approval, the arrangements I have made as regards additional establishment of Deputy Tahsildars and Taluq Sheristadars in the Principal Division of this district with the dates of entertainment. The large number of roads and other relief-works now being undertaken has necessitated the recent additions in Ponnery and Trivellore, though I managed with the regular establishment as long as possible.

Sydapett Taluq.

(a.) W. C. Parthasarady Pillay, 3rd English (Magisterial) Clerk, Collector's Office, to be extra 2nd-class Deputy Tahsildar.

(a.) C. Kailasa Mudelly, Taluq Sheristadar, to be additional 2nd-class Deputy Tahsildar for employment in Pallaveram relief camp.

(b.) A. K. Vurda Charry, Head Clerk of the General Deputy Collector's Office, to act as Taluq Sheristadar, vice Kailasa Mudelly.

(a.) C. Davaraju Mudelly, 5th English Accountant, Collector's Office, to be additional Taluq Sheristadar for employment in relief camp at Korattur.

Ponneri Taluq.

(a.) S. Strinivasiah, Vernacular Clerk, Collector's Office, to be additional Taluq Sheristadar, Ponneri Taluq.

Trivellore Taluq.

(a.) T. Vencatavarda Pillay, Taluq Sheristadar of Trivellore, to be additional 2nd-class Deputy Tahsildar.

(c.) P. K. Vurda Charry, 1st-class Revenue Inspector, Ponneri Taluq, to act as Taluq Sheristadar, vice Vencatavarda Pillay.

2. Half the extra establishment for the Sydapett Taluq was necessitated by the institution of two large camps at Pallaveram and Korattur (vide my letter, dated 18th December 1876, No. 137, to the Chief Secretary) to prevent the destitute from flocking into Madras, each of which requires a resident native official on the spot. At Korattur I put in an additional Taluq Sheristadar, but for the Pallaveram camp, which is a very important one, owing to gratuitous relief operations, I have appointed the Taluq Sheristadar who has been in immediate charge under Mr. Deputy Collector Jones since the commencement of the camp; and in his stead to relieve the Tahsildar of magisterial work I have nominated my magisterial clerk W. C. Parthasarady Pillay to be an extra Deputy Tahsildar.

(a.) To take effect from the 16th instant.
(b.) To take effect from the 14th December 1876.
(c.) To take effect from the 19th December 1876.

*Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department,
26th January 1877.*

3. I should notice here that the villages surrounding the Pallaveram and Mount cantonments are infested with swarms of beggars, crippled and hangers-on of pensioners, who are little better than beggars, at the best of times, and who, if not fed here would find their way to and swell the crowds in Madras proper.

4. The work at the Red Hills camp was temporarily placed in charge of the Tahsildar, but it is not now necessary to put in a temporary Sheristadar there, as under Government Order, Financial Department, dated 9th instant, No. 73, it is to be turned into a pauper camp only and worked in connection with the Madras relief-houses under a special officer, supervised by the Commissioner of Police.

5. I have informed the Sub-Collector that he should report to me for approval any extra establishment he may require for the sub-division, and the result will be reported to the Board in due course.

SUBMITTED for the approval of Government:

2. The arrangements made are within the general sanction accorded in G.O., 6th October 1876, No. 1,431, except in the Sydapett Taluq where these additional officers are required owing to the relief camps.
