GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

19th June 1877, No. 1739.

Pensions.

Read the following paper:—

No. 143. Proceedings of the Government of India in the Financial Department, (Pensions, Gratuities, &c.,) dated Simla, the 31st May 1877, No. 1007.

Read the following:—

From the Government of India, to the Secretary of State for India, dated 29th December 1876, No. 434.

We have the honor to refer for your Lordship's consideration an application from the * * * * * for the grant of an increased pension to Lieutenant and Assistant Commissary A. B. * * * *

2. It will be observed that Lieutenant A. B. has already been granted the invalid pension of his rank, viz., Rupees 175 a-month; but in consideration of the very high and honorable character borne by him, and of his long and faithful service of over 47 years, the Government of * * * recommend sanction to the grant to him of the pension of a Deputy Commissary, viz., of Rupees 240 a-month. We beg to support this recommendation.

ENCLOSURE No. 1.

Extract (paragraphs 1 and 2) from a Despatch from the Secretary of State, to the Government of India,—No. 92 (Military), dated 8th March 1877.

With your Financial letter, No. 434, dated 29th December 1876, you forward, and recommend for favorable consideration, an application from the Government of * * * for the grant of increased pension to Lieutenant and Assistant Commissary A. B. of the * * * Despatch at that Presidency.

2. On the recommendation of the Government of * * * supported by your Lordship, I authorise you to grant Lieutenant A. B. the higher pension of a Deputy Commissary, in lieu of that of an Assistant Commissary, to which only he is entitled under the Regulations. I desire, however, to express my general disinclination to increase the non-effective charges, by the grant of any pensions in excess of what the Regulations of the service provide, save in cases of very exceptional and distinguished service.

3. Mere length of service, however faithfully performed, is not, I consider, in itself a sufficient ground for exceptional reward, while in this case it would appear that A. B. was permitted by the Government of * * * out of consideration for himself personally, to extend his service beyond the date when it could be usefully or satisfactorily rendered.

ORDERED, that copies of this correspondence be forwarded for information to the several Departments of the Government of India and the several Local Governments and Administrations.
