From

J. H. Cook Esquire.

Special Assistant in charge of Relief Works. -

To

A. Wedderburn Esquire,

Collector of Coinleatose -

Sir

With reference to para 4 of your letter no 1571 dated 31st ultimo, I have the honor to state that I can give no details of the two deaths from sheer starvation in the Relief House at Pollachy further than that I myself saw a case of one young woman lying close to the House (not in it) dead. - I at once sent for the Assistant Surgeon who pronounced it, to be a case of starvation -

2. - The case I did not see but was told that such had happened. - The Sahsildar gives his reason for not mentioning the fact as an omission which he has subsequently rectified. -

I have &c.

/Signed/ J. H. Cook. -

Special Assistant. -

No 96.
