Salem.

TO

The Secretary to the Board of Revenue, Madras.

SIR,

I have the honor to enclose an estimate for Rs 6380 for construction of a road ^{from} Thervapett (a suburb of Salem) to join the Goramungalam and Taramangalam road via Chirumalagiri, and to request that the Board of Revenue will be pleased to return the same with their approval. The road in question is one of those originally taken up for Relief purposes, and a large sum of money Rs 4847 has been spent on it. The road

The road is a very useful one as leading to Yithur Kovil and Thirumalagiri, the former of which is a considerable place of pilgrimage, ^{while} ~~which~~ at the latter a large weekly market is held.
