No. 887. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 25th January 1877 :—

Read the following Proceedings of the Madras Government, dated 16th January 1877, No. 140, Financial Department.

ABSTRACT.—Requesting the Board of Revenue to urge upon all Collectors the importance of giving the Accountant-General timely notices when making large demands for specie on account of famine relief works.

Communicated to Collectors of distressed districts.

2. Care must be taken to forecast requirements so as to give the Accountant-General at least a fortnight's notice when remittances of cash are wanted ; and demands should always be supported by full information as to balances and probable receipts into the district treasuries and rate of current expenditure.
