GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

17th July 1877, No. 1659.

Courts.

Read the following paper:—

No. 95. From A. McC. WEBSTER, Esq., Acting Commissioner of the Nilgiris, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Ootacamund, 29th June 1877, No. 63.

The District Magistrate has forwarded to me a copy of G.O. of 30th May 1877, No. 750, and states that he is unable to effect any saving by a reorganization of the office of the Joint Magistrate, Ootacamund, which could be used for increasing the pay of the second clerk of that office, and has asked me whether I could provide for the proposed increase.

2. I have already reported the utter inadequacy of my present establishment, and my letter is now before Government with Board's Proceedings of 18th April last, No. 1639. Although it is impossible to make any reductions in the pay or number of the present establishment, I think the money could be provided by abolishing the office of Government Pleader. The appointment was first constituted in 1856, and the present incumbent, Mahomed Hussain Sahib, was appointed by Minutes of Consultation, dated 12th August 1856, No. 852.

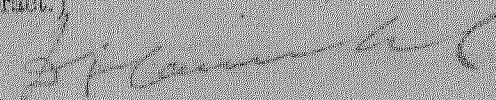

3. This individual has no work whatever to do, as he is found incompetent to conduct prosecutions before the Sessions Court, and as under Act 1 of 1868 constituting the Nilgiris a separate district, all suits to which Government are parties have to be tried in the Coimbatore District Court, he has no civil work. The appointment is therefore quite unnecessary and ought to be abolished. Of the money thus saved (Rupees 15) Rupees 10 per mensem might be added to the pay of the second clerk in the Joint Magistrate's Office, and Rupees 5 to the pay of the fourth vernacular clerk in my office now drawing 20 Rupees a month.

No. 96. ORDER THEREON, 17th July 1877, No. 1659.

Under the circumstances represented, the Government sanction the abolition of the post of Government Pleader in the Court of the Judicial Commissioner, Nilgiris, and the appropriation of the money thereby available to increasing the salaries of the second clerk in the Joint Magistrate's Office and the fourth vernacular clerk in the Commissioner's Office, in the manner recommended in the last paragraph of the above letter.

2. With reference to the correspondence noted in the margin, the Government specially exempt P. Periasawmy, second clerk in the office of the Joint Magistrate, Ootacamund, from passing the required examinations in order to qualify for his present appointment, the salary of which, under the arrangement now sanctioned, will stand at Rupees 20 per mensem.
