To

J. H. Garstin Esqre
Secretary to Government
Madras.

Sir,

I have the honor to acknowledge G. O. No. 2286 of the 11th instant R. O. Prior to its receipt, I had been in Official Communication with the Senior Member of Council regarding the transfer of Chingleput paupers, from the Madras Camps to this District, and large numbers have already been sent.

2. Additional Sheristadar Devaraja Bredly has already been deputed and is now doing this duty in Madras. He is not of the rank of Sheristadar

Deputy Sahibder, but as long as the Honorable Sir William Roberts-son is satisfied with him, I wish to know whether further action on my part is necessary.

I have the honorable,

Sir,
