Shortly – those deputed by Mr Suckle to Major Murray for the Red Hills being still there; though I have asked Major Dreves whether he still requires them

2. I would add too, that it was very necessary that the Clerk on 20 Rupees for the Accounts should be one of the regular Treasury hands, and under the circumstances I trust the Board will allow the appointments alluded to to stand.

Collector.

The Collector is referred to Boards Proceedings Miscellaneous No. 486 dated 15th January 1877 recording the

The Establishment available from the Settlement party for Employment on the relief works of Chingleput. The Board learn that the Settlement hands temporarily provided for duty at the Red Hill Camp have been returned to the Settlement Department; and as it seems advantageous in every way to employ those now in Government Service, rather than entrust them, the Collector should communicate with the Deputy Director of Revenue Settlement with the view of being provided with hands.

30th January 1877.

No. 911. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 23rd January 1877 :—

Read the following letter from R. W. BARLOW, Esq., Collector of the Chingleput District, to H. E. STOKES, Esq., Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Saidapett, 16th January 1877, No. 44 :—

In reply to Board's Miscella[illegible] No. 408 of the 13th instant I have the honor to observe that I shall bear their orders in mind for the future. At present, however, I have no Settlement hands working under me—though I shall apply for some shortly those deputed by Mr. Puckle to Major Murray for the Red Hills being still there though I have asked Major Drever whether he still requires them.

2. I would add, too, that it was very necessary that the Clerk on 20 Rupees for the accounts should be one of the regular Treasury hands, and, under the circumstances, I trust the Board will allow the appointments alluded to to stand.

The Collector is referred to Board's Proceedings, Miscellaneous No. 486, dated 15th January 1877, recording the establishment available from the Settlement Party for employment on the relief works of Chingleput. The Board learn that the Settlement hands temporarily furnished for duty at the Red Hill Camp have been returned to the Settlement Department, and as it seems advantageous in every way to employ these now in Government service rather than hitherto then, the Collector should communicate with the Deputy Director of Revenue Settlement with the view of being provided with hands.
