The Collector of Coimbatore

Sir,

I have the honor to request that Tahsildars may be empowered at their discretion to pay as Maistries and Gornastiks the poorer Monegars and Cummaus who are now in charge of relief works. Some of them are nearly poverty stricken, as their fields are waste and there is no plundry.
In one instance I found the members of the Monegar's family on the Works, and he would gladly have received payment also. This measure

Was sanctioned in Bellary by Mr. Thornhill.
