Collector of Coimbatore.

Sir,
With reference to Board's Procedings No. 8247 of 27th September, I have the honor to state that I shall be glad to re-write the Manual of this District.

Coimbatore and to Mr. Rice. The Board have received an offer from the Acting Head Assistant Collector, ~ Mr. Mackenzie, to rewrite the ~ Manual which they deferred laying before Government pending the decision on Mr. Rice's compilation; they now recommend its acceptance.

the Board beg to explain that the work was printed before it was submitted for their decision. The perusal of bulky volumes in Manuscript would be tedious and the circulation of the papers would entail considerable delay. it was therefore arranged that copies of the proof sheets should be sent to the Board's Office as they are struck, and the Board's remarks are communicated to the compiler in the form of marginal notes. This course, which was followed in the case of previous Manuals, is by far the most convenient and the Board had no reason to anticipate such a failure as has occurred.
