Madras

Sir, The temporary S^d Collector Anantapur Division reports that he sent on the 26th March last, two cheques amounting to Rupees 380-10-3 being the pay of his establishment & that of the servants of the Revenue Settlement Department for February last, to the Tahsildar of Anantapur directing him to distribute a certain amount to the settlement Gumnastas employed in his Taluk & to send Rs 96-8- to the Tahsildar of Dharmapuram for distribution to

to the settlement servants in that Taluk.

2. The Tahsildar accordingly entrusted Rs 96-8-0 to Haji Sai a processon who, failed to deliver the money & absconded at last he was apprehended on a charge of criminal breach of Trust. The Tahsildar was not aware for a month or so that the peon had failed to deliver the money.

3. The peon was found guilty & sentenced to 1 year's rigorous imprisonment & Rs 100 fine of which since the amount entrusted to him was ordered to be made good. A warrant was issued for the levy of the fine but was returned on the ground that there was no property.

4. I have therefore issued another cheque for the amount of Rs 96-8-0 to

to be disbursed to the servants of the settlement department. The amount misappropriated by the processon (Rs 96-8-0) should be debited to profit & loss & for this I have the honor to request
