GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

13th July 1877, No. 2,301.

Read the following paper:—

No. 309. Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 18th June 1877, No. 2,859.

Read the following letter from L. C. PROBYN, Esq., Accountant-General, to the Hon. D. F. CARMICHAEL, Officiating Chief Secretary to Government, dated Fort St. George, 11th May 1877, No. 676.

With reference to the accompanying copy of a letter (dated 9th May 1877, No. 372) from the Collector of Salem, and its enclosure, I have the honor to state that I concur in the propriety of opening a Money Order Office at Yercaud; but there is no reason why it should be made an exception to the general rule which requires such offices to be under the officer in charge of a Government Treasury. The practice in Tellicherry, which the Collector quotes, has ceased to exist since 1873, when the duties theretofore performed by Money Order Agents were made to form a part of the ordinary Treasury work. Under these circumstances, I would respectfully suggest that the Deputy Tahsildar in charge of Yercaud may be appointed to undertake the Money Order duties.

Enclosure No 1.

From C. T. LONGLEY, Esq., Collector of Salem, to L. C. PROBYN, Esq., Accountant-General, Money Order Department, dated Yercaud, 9th May 1877, No. 372.

I have the honor to request that a Money Order Office may be established at this station. It is, I believe, usual for such offices to be located at the Treasuries (and there is one here), but Mr. Prince, the Postmaster here, has, vide letter enclosed, quoted the practice obtaining in Tellicherry, where the Postmaster is the Agent. If you consider his request can be met, I see no objections to his appointment; the distance between the Post Office and the Treasury is not more than a few hundred yards.

Enclosure No. 2.

From Mr. G. PRINCE, Deputy Postmaster, to C. T. LONGLEY, Esq., Collector of Salem, dated Yercaud, 9th May 1877.

Alluding to our conversation this morning anent the establishment of a Money Order Office at Yercaud, I respectfully beg you will be so kind as to request the Comptroller-General, Money Order Department, to appoint me as the Agent instead of having it at the Treasury.

2. This will not be the only instance where the Deputy Postmaster is to transact the business of a Money Order Office, as the Deputy Postmaster, Tellicherry (Malabar Coast), is the Agent for that station. Hoping you will pardon the liberty I have taken in addressing you, I have, &c.
