1877 No. 529.

2. There is one Deputy Tah-

By G.O. 18th April 1869
The Col. of William Kennel & Godwin was ordered to send a D. P. from such District to the East Coast Canal as Protector of Indians & Natives that there is such an office now at the Canal.

By G.O. 22nd June 1870
The Extra 3rd substituted within Sanction in Kennel was submitted for sanction. In that was entered a D. P.
for trans port of coolies to Holland.
This appointment was sanctioned with a sanction whether the was needed any longer. The Col. has replied that the

Now the 180 G.O. quoted above is a sanction to the Col^d of Kennecott apparently - a Protector of Sumner perhaps but it is certainly not to the Col^d of Sumner - It is not known certainly whether the Col^d of Kennecott has appointed this Protector at the Canal - for such appointment is entered by the Col^d of Sumner in his list of appointments for Sumner.
 And he will transfer his Post to Sumner.
 It is uncertain how the first is.
