To

J. W. Johnston Esq.

Special Deputy Collector

in charge collector's office.

Sir,

I have the honor to inform you that I find myself recovering so well, though still very weak, that considering the present gloomy prospect of the Country, I hesitate to avail myself of the leave granted me; and will with the permission of Government instead of going on leave at once, wait for a week to see if my health continues to improve, and no return of the disease occurs. At the end of that time I shall probably be able to tell if I am fit to go on with my
