F. No 5895.

Revs.

The person primarily responsible for the 20/4 N. is Dr. Fribble, who took on himself to administer to the estate of the late Mr. Rheinisch. Dr. Fribble should have paid for the funeral expenses before handing over the assets of the estate to the mother of the deceased.

There is an irregular action on the part of Mr. Breichs perhaps to take Dr. Fribble to make a report of - how long it has been

What have you heard of the State I think -

Dr. Fribble

perhaps proposed speaking last has handed them over to the adm. of the because died in custody.

in the matter

paid for to put down in done.

Mr. Rhenius, the father of the deceased, might be asked if he would pay the 20% W. but if he refuses then charge is I think properly debitable to Hospital Contn.

Board of Revenue

Madras

Sir,

I have the honor to request the favor of instructions upon the following matter.

2. In March last Mr Rhenius, a Superintendent on Relief works in the Madana alli Taluk, died of cholera

Of the

Mr Ferricks, the Relief Officer in charge (since dead), took upon his own responsibility, from the stores belonging to the D. P. W., teak wood valued at Rs 20-4- intended for the new Salug cutcherry at Madanapalli and with it, made up a coffin for Mr Rhenius. The Range Officer now asks that the item may be adjusted.

3 The Sub-Collector suggests that the value of the wood might be debited to Famine, as Mr Rhenius died from the effect of disease contracted ^{while} in the execution of his duty.

4 The balance of salary due to the late Mr Rhenius was paid over by the existing Sub-Collector Mr Gribble to his mother. His father and most of kin is, ^{here}, the hopeless.

Inspecting Post Master of the Bangalore Division who is, I should imagine, in a sufficiently good position to allow of his paying the bill.
