Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 31st January 1877.

No. 990. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 22nd January 1877:—

Read Proceedings of the Madras Government Revenue Department, dated 16th January 1877, No. 160, regarding the establishment of a depôt at Nundikotkur in Kurnool, &c.

COMMUNICATED to the Collector of Kurnool.

With regard to Deputy Collector C. Vencatachellum Pillai, the Board received on the 10th instant copy of the Collector's proceedings of the 6th, directing him to join the appointment of Tahsildar of Markapur in pursuance of the Government telegram of the 2nd January. But with reference to the Notification, dated 6th January, which appeared in the Gazette of the 9th appointing P. S. Raghavachari to act as Deputy Collector in Kurnool during the absence of Vencatachellum Pillai on leave, the Board presumed that some further communications had passed unknown to the Board and Mr. Davidson, which had induced Government to modify their orders, and the Board, therefore, simply recorded Mr. Davidson's proceedings. Copy will now be submitted to Government.
