Nellore
Collector's Office
8th August 1877

From
J. Grose Esquire.
Collector of Nellore.

To
J. H. Garstin Esquire.
Additional Secretary to Govt
Revenue Dept.
Madras.

Sir,

With reference to your telegram of the 25th July 1877 — I have the honor to inform you that I think it has become necessary to place a Deputy Collector in charge of Relief operations in Nellore and Gudur. The three Camps in this tract now contained 16,664 paupers.

I would rather have Dorasawmy Modely, Tahsildar of Nellore than any other man. He has been eminently successful in his management of the Nellore Camp, ~~which~~ is thoroughly imbued with right rations on the subject of Relief, is eminently active, and trustworthy and has already held the appointment of Famine Deputy Collector in Chinglepet, which he was allowed to resign on account of failing health. So far as I can see at present, no more Officers of this Grade will be wanted.

I have the honor to be
Sir
Your most Obedient Servant.

J Wise Collector.
