GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

28th July 1877, No. 2,394.

Famine Relief.

No. 538. Proceedings of Government, dated 28th July 1877, No. 2,394.

Miscellaneous.

THE particular attention of Collectors of all distressed districts is drawn to the vital statistics of their districts as affording the real index of the position of affairs in this season of distress.

2. Comparative taluqwar abstracts of deaths for each distressed district have been obtained from the Sanitary Commissioner, and printed copies of them are herewith forwarded for information and use. Each Collector should fill up the blank columns for the months of May, June, July, &c., as the statistics are compiled in their Offices, and forward one copy of the forms monthly to the Government.

3. Copies should also be furnished to divisional officers, month by month, for their information and observation.

4. Similar returns for births will hereafter be furnished and could be dealt with in the same manner.
