Calcutta, the 27th January 1877

Sir,

I am directed to acknowledge with thanks the care with which all orders of the Madras Government on the subject of famine are forwarded to the Government of India, in accordance with this office telegram of December 4th, 1876, but at the same time to enquire whether it would not be practicable to send them with greater continuity and nearer the date of actual issue. Your docket N^o 13 of the 20th Inst. received yesterday, for instance, covered a variety of orders ranging from the 23^d ultimo to the 18th Instant.

I have the honor to be
Sir,

Your most obedient servant

Orders relating to Famine—Resolving to inform the Government of India that the attention of this Government has been drawn to the delay in passing through the Press, and that steps have been taken to obviate it in future.
