Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 2nd February 1877.

No. 59. Read the following Proceedings of the Court of Wards, dated 25th January 1877, No. 295:—

Read the following letter from A. J. STUART, Esq., Acting Collector of Tinnevely, to H. E. STOKES, Esq., Acting Secretary to the Court of Wards, dated 16th January 1877, No. 30.

In reply to Proceedings of the Court of Wards, No. 11,444, dated 27th December 1876, I have the honor to report that, in the hope that rain would fall and the prospects improve, I deferred the kists of November and December in the distressed taluqs and in Ettiapuram Zemindari. This hope has not been realized, and I have already directed that the collections be commenced wherever the circumstances of the village and the ryots will admit. I have, however, authorized the Tahsildars to suspend the collection of assessment which it is proposed to remit whether on wet or dry land. I have already reported (vide letter, No. 4, dated 5th instant) the probable percentage of this in each taluq and in the Ettiapuram Zemindari, and will make formal application on the subject by the end of the month if detailed information is sufficient, as I hope will be the case.

RECORDED.

2. The further report promised is awaited.

Read the following telegram from the Collector of Tinnevely, dated 24th December 1876.

"PLEASE transfer any balance at credit of Ettiapuram Zemindari with Madras Bank to Treasury, Tinnevely. No money in hand. Season bad. Collections postponed."

THE balance remaining with the Bank of Madras on account of the Ettiapuram Estate is Rs. 6,829-15-2. The Secretary of the Bank will be requested to remit to the Collector of Tinnevely, by means of a transfer receipt, a sum of Rs. 6,000 and debit the amount, together with commission, in the accounts. The Collector is requested to report further as to the suspension of collections, the condition of the estate, and the necessity of the measure. A relaxation of collections in the case of the poorer ryots may be expedient, but a total suspension may exempt those who are able to pay.
