PROCEEDINGS of the MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

READ the following letter from

Mr. J. H. Garstin, Madras Civil Service, dated 20th January 1877/1878.

I have the honor to submit, for the orders of Government, a letter in original from the Accountant General declining to pass me any deputation allowance while acting for the Honorable Mr. Jamichael.
The grounds for his refusal are set forth in his letter.

2. I beg also to appeal against a retrenchment made from my salary, of a day's pay, amounting to Rs 73-6-8, under the following circumstances:- I took a month's privilege leave on the forenoon of the 1st September last, last, leaving the District in charge of the next Senior Officer, the Acting Sub-Collector, who, some days after my departure, was gazetted to act as Collector during my absence. My leave, I contend, entitled me to a break myself up to and including the whole of the last day of the month of September and expired on the 30th October, and as that day happened to be a Sunday, I considered that, under the rules, I was not bound to re-join my appointment till the following morning, which I did. The Accountant General has ruled, in his objection statement, however, that I ought to have rejoined on the afternoon of 30th September. I submit that the ruling is wrong, and subjoin and extract from the rule governing the case (Clause 10, Section 37, Chapter VIII of the Civil Civil Leave Code) - "But if his leave or joining time end on a Sunday * * * and he take charge before noon on the first working day after that Sunday * * * his assumption of office and the re-arrangement of appointments and allowances (if any) consequent thereon shall be held to have taken place on the day after that on which his leave ended, provided that such re-arrangement (if any) does not involve the transfer of any officer to another station or the formal appointment of any officer to a new office."

3. I submit that my return did not involve any such transfer or formal appointment seeing

Seeing that the Sub-collector was just as much in his District and on duty at Head Quarters with me as at his own Sub Division Station.

4. I therefore request that, if the Government consider the Accountant General's ruling erroneous, the retrenchment may be cancelled.

Order thereon 26 January 1877. No 271

The Accountant
General is authorised to pay Mr Garstin's deputation allowance as Acting Secretary to Government during Honorable Mr. Farnick's absence on duty with His Grace the

the Governor.

2. This order will be forwarded to the Government of India for confirmation.

3. The question raised regarding Mr. Garstin's return from privilege leave will be referred for the decision of the Government of India.
