No 543

From

J. B. Pennington Esquire
Collector

To C. A. Galton Esquire Ag Secretary to the Board of Revenue
Madras

Sir

The continuance of high prices and severe distress compels me to apply for sanction to open Relief works again in this District wherever other work is not available.

2 The District Engineer has a sufficiency of sanctioned projects on hand to begin with and I have therefore telegraphed for authority to begin upon them whenever labour on ordinary works cannot be provided.

3 Other Estimates will be submitted for sanction as may be found necessary.

The Collector has already been authorized by telegram to commence relief works. Irrigation repairs should have the preference.
