Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 5th February 1877.

No. 136. Read the following letter from J. F. PRICE, Esq., Acting Collector of Cuddapah, to J. H. GARSTIN, Esq., Additional Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated 31st January 1877, No. 9:—

I HAVE the honor to request that Government will be pleased to sanction the immediate detail of three experienced Estimators to this District in view to their being employed under the three Engineer Officers, who, I have arranged, shall be exclusively employed upon the duty of measuring up, and estimating for famine relief works.

2. I have assigned a Surveyor from the Revenue Settlement Department to each of these officers, and the Estimators are necessary to work out the data given to them by the Engineer and Surveyor.

3. Two good English Clerks acquainted with accounts ought to be assigned to each Engineer Officer.

4. With this establishment, I hope to be able to have all the works in the district cleared up within three months.

No. 137. ORDER THEREON, 5th February 1877, No. 532.

Miscellaneous.

The employment of three Estimators and six English Clerks acquainted with accounts is sanctioned. The Principal of the Civil Engineering College will be requested to detail the Estimators if possible.
