Famine Relief.

No. 157-A. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 31st January 1877, No. 373:—

Read the following letter from R. W. CARLOW, Esq., Collector of Chingleput, to H. E. STOKES, Esq., Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Sydapet, 22nd January 1877, No. 56:—

REFERRING to the remarks of the Director of Revenue Settlement, contained in paragraph 6 of his letter, dated the 8th instant, No. 3, embodied in Board's Proceedings, dated the 12th idem, I have the honor to state that the object for which the two relief camps at the Red Hills and Palaveram were formed was somewhat different. The one at the Red Hills, occupying a somewhat isolated position, was established to prevent the influx of destitute ryots coming from the north into Madras, while that at Palaveram, though intended for a similar object, was also intended to relieve the swarms of crippled beggars and hangers-on of pensioners who reside in the villages surrounding the Palaveram and Mount Cantonments, and who if not fed here would find their way into Madras and swell the crowds there. The people fed at the Red Hills, therefore, are all resident inmates of the camp, while the majority of those fed at Palaveram are non-residents.
